CIRLOCK

LOCKOUT / TAGOUT EQUIPMENT

Company Profile

The company CIRLOCK Erik Larsen Pty. Ltd. trading as Cirlock is an Australian owned and family operated business, specialising in Lockout and Tagout Equipment for Energy Sources.

The business was founded in 1992, by Erik Larsen, when the now well known CIRLOCK System Lockout Devices for Circuit Breakers was first marketed. Shortly after came the FUSELOCK System of Lockout Devices for Fuse Holders, and since we have steadily grown and expanded our range of Lockout Equipment.

The company's aim is to provide a full range of Lockout Equipment for Energy Sources in all Industries.

The Cirlock range is available around the world and now has representation in South East Asia with Asteam Technology as their appointed authorised dealer in both Singapore.
